

Course Name: CCE-401,Civics and Community Engagement

Credit Hours: 1-1

Contact Hours: 1-3

Pre-requisites:

None

Course Introduction:

This course is designed to provide students with a deep understanding of Civics and community engagement. The course will explore the foundations of civic life, including the principles of democracy, the role of the government, and the responsibilities of citizenship. Additionally, the course will provide students with an opportunity to develop skills in community engagement, including community organizing, advocacy, and social justice.

CLO No	Course Learning Outcomes	Bloom Taxonomy
CLO-1	Understand the key concepts and principles of citizenship and community engagement	C2 (Understand)
CLO-2	Develop and apply skills in community engagement, including community organizing, advocacy, and social justice.	C3 (Apply)
CLO-3	Analyze the role of community organizations and civic institutions in promoting civic responsibility	C4 (Analyze)
CLO-4	Analyze the non-profit and community-based organizations and their role in community engagement.	C4 (Analyze)

Course Plan:

#	Weekly Distribution of Course Contents
Week-1	Role and importance of Civics and community Engagement

Week-2	Introduction to Civics and Democracy
Week-3	Role of Government and Citizens
Week-4	Constitution and Bill of Rights
Week-5	Community Engagement and Advocacy
Week-6	Community Organizing
Week-7	Advocacy and Social Justice
Week-8	Role of Non-Profit Organizations in Community Welfare
Week-9	Community-based Organizations
Week-10	Local and Global Issues in Community Welfare
Week-11	Environmental Sustainability

Week-12	Poverty and Inequality, Human Rights
Week-13	Social Justice, Reflection and Action
Week-14	Reflection on Personal Learning and Growth
Week-15	Action Planning for Community Engagement
Week-16	Cultural Competency and Diversity in Community Engagement

Reference Materials:

30. "Civics Today: Citizenship, Economics & You" by McGraw-Hill Education, 2008.
 31. "Community Organizing: Theory and Practice" by Joan Kloppenburg, 2015.
 32. "Advocacy and Social Justice: A Guide for Lawyers" by Robyn C. Spencer, 2013.
-