

Course Title	Course Code	Credit Hours
Civic & Community Engagement	CCE-401	1-1

Textbook:

- Marianne R. Woodside and Tricia McClam, “An Introduction to Human Services”, Cengage Learning

Reference Books/Materials:

- Trainer’s Manual of Community Based Disaster Risk Management NDMA-Pakistan by Mariser Palencia
National Disaster Management Authority (NDMA)
- Basic First Aid Manual by State Management Authority, Shillong.
Basic First Aid Manual English.pdf (msdma.gov.in)
- Social Investment Manual by Technical University Munich, Germany. (fi-compass.eu)
- NUST Working Paper WP No.89-66th ACM-1 Sep 2023

Course Objectives:

The course should allow student,

- To gain general awareness and knowledge among students about social issues.
- To develop social guidance amongst NUST students to become socially active citizens.
- To have a discernible positive impact on society through active citizenry
- NUST Working Paper 89, ACM 66th

Course Outline:

- Introduction to Civic and Community Engagement: Overview of the course and the need for community service, explores community service from both international and local perspectives. Community Service Project Management: How to Design a community service project and the requirements needed for such a project, delves into resource management and the art of fundraising, considering trends, challenges, and needs from a local perspective.

- Disaster Management and Response: what a disaster is and the types of disasters, discusses earthquakes and floods from Pakistan's perspective, the spirit of volunteerism during disasters, and
- Basic first aid, including accidents and emergencies such as choking, shocks, and burns, as well as CPR, covers fractures, animal bites, and heart attacks
- Technological Advancements Impacting Community examines the relevance and building of community service connections with the respective knowledge areas or disciplines of students.
- Social Entrepreneurship: Introduces the concept of social entrepreneurship and explains the difference between entrepreneurship and social entrepreneurship presents social work start-up success stories from both local and international perspectives, provides guidance on how to register a social enterprise locally, teaches how to plan and implement a social change project or venture to meet the unmet needs of society.
- Education for Sustainable Development: Introduces the concept of sustainable development and the SDGs, focuses on how to become a change agent for the well-being of society by contributing to sustainable development.
- Youth and Volunteerism introduces volunteerism, the types of volunteer's volunteerism in Pakistan, including trends, challenges, and needs.

Labs / Field Work / Project Outline:

- Overview of the practical field work and necessary requirements and outcomes.
- Students will do team building and tasks allocation to individual team members (Classroom session)
- Students will conduct need analysis survey, coordination with selected community partner for execution of the project and resource management (Field Activity)
- Students will discuss and finalize their project ideas and submission of the Project Plan Report (Classroom session)
- Practical Execution of the project (Field Activity) From Week 4 to 13.
- Project Presentations and Viva (Classroom session)