

Course Description:

This will be the second part of the Law of Contract. In this component the focus would be on law of Bailments, Agency and Sale of Goods. The course will cover the mutual obligations of a principal and agent, formation of contract of sale, passing of property, rules of delivery and rights and obligations of the sellers and buyers. This course will reinforce the fundamental concepts that will be helpful in other modules such as in Business and Commercial law, Labor and Employment Law etc.

Learning Outcomes:

On successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

- a. Analyze, evaluate and apply general principles of contract law, undertake legal research using a range of primary and secondary materials at a foundational level.
- b. Identify relevant legal issues and apply relevant legal principles to generate solutions to complex problems relating to contractual dealings.
- c. Develop well-structured, cohesive and persuasive written arguments for a legal audience.
- d. Exercise judgement in the identification and application of relevant legal principles to a contractual dispute in an academic environment.
- e. Embody professionalism and ethical behavior in providing legal advice in an academic environment.

Contents:

- a. Bailment
- b. Bailers Responsibility
- c. Bailment of Pledge
- d. Agency
- e. Sale of Goods
- f. Transfer of Title
- g. Unpaid Seller
- h. Remedies