

National University of Sciences and Technology

School of Art, Design and Architecture

ARCH-401 – Architectural Design Studio V

Credit Hours:	1-5	Semester:	Fall
Instructor:		Office:
		Extension:
Counseling Hours:
Research Assistant:		Office:
Email:
Website:		Extension:
Pre-requisites:	ARCH-302 – Architectural Design Studio IV
Course Description:	The fourth year of Architecture Design is not only a move for enhancing the Design capabilities of students, but also the biggest leap towards completing the process of achieving the B-Arch degree. More importantly it's a final chance to inculcate the sense of responsibility into students which will help them to achieve a balance between a responsible, ethical professional and a successful Architect. Two Studio projects are planned for the 7th semester are based on advanced architectural design and planning of buildings involving considerations of structural and functional complexity as well as resolving facilities of services in and around the building. The main projects of the semesters in 4th year studio are housing and Hospital complex with particular emphasis on spatial configurations and its relation with urban context. The purpose of the course is to get student aware with the complexity of master planning and relationship of different building typologies in same complex. The Buildable, Habitable and Sustainable Architecture The swing of focus to both Architecture of theory and Architecture of Lines and Materials, of Spaces and Volumes, of Society and Culture, of Yesterday and for a Greener Tomorrow		